Undeniably beautiful with its clean lines and streamlined appearance, the rectangular Milano dining table will bring a sense of style to any dining room. The curved edges of the table top slightly soften the sharp expression that otherwise defines this modern table. At the same time, the solid pedestal base creates a bold and modern look that will make this table centre of attention. Need extra seats? Just pull out the clever, built-in extension leaf and go from a 4-person family meal to a dinner party seating 12.
