

Avarit

Giuseppe Viganò

Customisation is the key word that distinguishes the Avarit modular sofa collection. Customers can put together their desired composition starting with a fixed base and backrest, then adding the important seat cushions and down backrest that make up the actual soul of the sofa. In addition, it is possible to choose from an extensive range of upholstery covers in fabric and leather, which can be mixed and matched in total freedom. The feet are made of metal painted in anthracite grey, white, dove-grey, brown or black.
